

AIPPS Program Support Final Report

As you finish your AIPPS supported travel, the following two items must be completed prior to receiving your final award payment. All required materials should be email to aips@pakistanstudies-aips.org. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us!

1. Provide us one paragraph (maximum of one-page) highlighting the affect(s) of this support on Pakistani studies. Please provide this report in a separate word document (.doc or .docx).
2. Complete the form below regarding details of your presentation (please return this as a word doc).

AIPPS Fellowship Research Information

Name:

Shahnaz Rouse

Affiliate Institution in U.S.:

Sarah Lawrence College

Funding Project/Program:

Re-envisioning Pakistan: The Political Economy of Social Transformation

Date of Presentation:

April 4-6, 2014

Who was the intended audience?

Scholars, activists, general public interested in Pakistan

Number of Attendees:

Approximately 300 spread over the 3 days

Key Outcomes (List 2-3 key outcomes of this presentation. Outcomes may also be addressed in paragraph above).

1. Greater exposure to Pakistan Studies & to speakers from multiple disciplines, fields
2. 2 days of panels open to public; third day limited to speakers only, to generate future work
3. A different lens through which to understand Pakistan

Deliverables (Provide bulleted list below of deliverables from this presentation, if applicable. Please include items such as lectures given, etc.):

- 7 panels with 3-5 speakers each plus moderators and discussants
- Film screening: 6 short documentary films on Pakistan + live streaming of day 1 which drew an additional audience of over 400 most from the U.S. but stretching as far as Australia
- Panelists from Pakistan, Europe and the U.S.
- A mix of speakers, including social scientists, writers, journalists and film makers
- Social settings for panelists to interact with each other, and with the audience (meals etc)